Perspective

I'm so excited I can hardly contain myself! I'm just giddy, bubbling over with delight! As some of you know, I've been writing my first book for almost four years now. And guess what - it's DONE. But that isn't the amazing part. I just finished writing my second book - in only four WEEKS! This book practically wrote itself - clearly divinely inspired. It was inspired by the hit book and movie "The Secret", about the law of attraction.

My thoughts were - if the law of attraction can assist people in manifesting what they want for their lives, how might it be used to manifest the world we wish for in our dreams for humanity? The purpose of the book I just wrote is to have you grasp that you DO have the power to transform your life AND the world. Everything you need to accomplish this is already within you. All you have to do is to access it.

Using the law of attraction (www.usemanifestsoftware.com) in conjunction with examining our relationship to sufficiency (www.soulofmoney.org) and an informed awareness of the systemic inequalities that perpetuate injustice will transform our approaches to create a world that works for everyone.

The power of the law of attraction is that it rearranges what we focus on - off of the struggle and on to the possibilities; off of the distress and on to the joy; and off of scarcity and on to sufficiency. In this new realm, we have more power, more flow, more joy and more fulfillment because we are clear about what we really want and how much power we have to get it.

Polarization Activity

We have a cultural habit I call polarization. It interferes with our ability to be our most amazing as a human community. Try this visualization activity with me. Think of someone you really love, someone who is a joy to be around, someone who makes you feel wonderful, someone who lights up your life. Think of a time when you were together that was memorable. Take a minute to get present to what this is like for you emotionally and physically. Notice what feelings and body sensations are present.

Now think of someone you dislike or even hate, someone who makes you angry, someone whose values and behavior make you sick, someone who causes an intense negative reaction when you are around them. Take a minute to get present to what this is like for you emotionally and physically. Notice what feelings and body sensations are present.

The point of this exercise is to remind us that our judgment and hatred of others is damaging to US (not to those who are the objects of our displeasure). It's like swallowing poison and expecting it to hurt our enemies. It also reminds us that the love we feel for others can be a great healing force in our lives. If we can rethink and reframe our relationship to our adversaries and enemies, we can see that our participation in fueling judgment and hatred is damaging to us. In contrast, our efforts to find forgiveness and even love for our enemies can be healing to us.

Quotes

"We are living through one of the most fundamental shifts in history - a change in the actual belief structure of Western society. No economic, political, or military power can compare with the power of a change of mind. By deliberately changing their images of reality, people are changing the world. - Willis Harman, Global Mind Change

"Until you make the unconscious conscious, it will direct your life and you will call it fate." Carl Jung

"I leaped off the mountain top of fear and - to my surprise - I didn't fall. I soared" Joe Vitale, The Attractor Factor
